 - ii. Remembrance day assemblies on Nov 10
 - iii. Voices 41 district choral night Nov 18
 - iv. Grade 12 grad photos Nov 20-26
 - v. Pro D Day Nov 21

4. Treasurer's Report: Julia Wang
 - a. Mr. Sandor provided the school's Wish List items. Julia reviewed the current budget with the PAC. We currently show a balance of $22,492.12. The total ask from the school's Wish List is $22,150.00. This leaves the PAC with a surplus balance of $342.12, with more revenue anticipated before the end of the school year. Approval of the school's Wish List was motioned by Ross, and seconded by Sukhvir.
 - b. Julia to look into logistics of doing a fundraiser in conjunction with Once Upon a Child where they purchase donated clothing items from the school's families. Julia to report back at the next PAC meeting in December.
5. Dry Grad Report: Lisa Young
 - a. Dry grad is being hosted at the Pinnacle Hotel in Vancouver. The dinner/dance begins at 6:00 pm, followed by dry grad which begins at 11:00 pm. Dry grad ends at 1:00 am and transportation home for the students will be provided. Should students choose to leave after the dinner/dance, they will need to arrange transportation home with their families.
 - b. Some fundraising events will be starting early November to help fund dry grad such as the Purdy's chocolate sales, Krispy Kreme donut sales,
 - c. Estimated attendance to be approximately 180 students. Pricing of tickets to be confirmed.
6. Report from Chair: Ross Brown
 - a. BCCPAC
 - i. Conference happening this Saturday. Ross and Lisa are not able to attend. Please reach out to Ross if you would like to attend in their place.
 - b. DPAC
 - i. Meeting is scheduled for November 17th. Will report back at next PAC meeting.
7. Round Table
 - a. Student government and grad council and DSAC – it is easier for students from these committees to attend virtually. We will invite them to the next virtual PAC meeting and provide them advance notice so they can prepare a report to the PAC.
 - b. What's App channel – it's an open group chat. If you know other parents who want to be invited, please send them the link.
8. Good and Welfare
 - a. Mr. Sandor and Ross thanked everyone for attending the PAC meeting tonight and expressed appreciation for their time and effort. They noted that these meetings play an important role in supporting our students.
9. Adjourn
 - a. Meeting adjourned at 8:23 pm
 - b. Next meeting is December 1st – in person
